HBO period drama lifts curtain on Season 2

By Dana Simpson TV Media

hether first heard as a quippy oneliner from famous New York humorist Fran Lebowitz ("Pretend It's a City") or read in Esther Crain's book "The Gilded Age in New York, 1870–1910." there is little doubt you've heard about New York City's penchant for change. Per Crain's aforementioned book.released in 2016 and available through most major booksellers, "the most common observation about New York is that it never stops evolving."

This is especially true in the HBO series "The Gilded Age," premiering Season 2 on its home network and the Max streaming service Sunday, Oct. 29. Starring Carrie Coon ("Gone Girl," 2014), Cynthia Nixon ("Sex and the City") and Christine Baranski ("Mamma Mia!," 2008) as some of New York's finest wealthy gossips, the series follows a group of business moguls and socialites as they work hard to make a name for themselves and build an empire in New York City during the turn of the 20th century.

Don't miss the expansion of New York City and Julian Fellowes' ("Downton Abbev") period drama "The Gilded Age" when Season 2 premieres Sunday, Oct. 29, on HBO and Max.

Peruvian chef Franco Noriega sizzles in 'Hot Dish'

By Caroline Collacutt TV Media

Good food and good stories — that's what makes a perfect meal. And having tried everything — from acting to modeling to competitive swimming — before becoming a professional restaurateur, this Peruvian chef certainly has a lot to share. All-new episodes of "Hot Dish With Franco" air Saturdays on Food Network.

During this series, "Franco shares personal heartfelt stories of his Peruvian and Italian roots as he prepares delicious dishes with his signature flare for flavor," Food Network describes. "From quick and easy weeknight meals to brunch and classic Latin dishes with a twist, all of Franco's food is easy, accessible and brings people together."

Throughout the series' six half-hour episodes, Food Network promises that "Franco takes viewers on a culinary journey, sprinkling in tidbits of his Latin American and Italian background along with cooking tips and tricks." Bursting with flavor and Franco's signature flair, the Season 1 finale for "Hot Dish With Franco" airs Saturday, Nov. 4, on Food Network.
