Reba McEntire's comedy return

NBC opens 'Happy's Place'

By Jay Bobbin

TV Media

eba McEntire is in a happy place, in more ways than one.

The country music icon's acting career has endured, confirmed in large part by the repeats of her first sitcom, "Reba," that continue on Hallmark Channel. CMT and UPtv. She hits many of the same notes — along with one of the same costars—as she returns to comedy series work in "Happy's Place," which NBC debuts Friday, Oct. 18.

Also continuing as a coach on Season 26 of NBC's "The Voice," McEntire now plays sassy, strong-willed Bobbie, who gets multiple surprises as "Happy's Place" begins. She learns that she has inherited her late father's restaurant (which gives the program its title), and also that she has a partner in running it: Isabella (played by Belissa Escobedo, "Blue Beetle," 2023), the half-sister she didn't know she had.

Their business views differ frequently, and trying to help moderate those are the site's staff: bartender Gabby (fellow "Reba" alum Melissa Peterman). cook Emmett (Rex Linn, who also worked with McEntire on "Big Sky"), waiter Takoda (Tokala Black Elk. "Yellowstone") and accountant Steve (Pablo Castelblanco, "Alaska Daily").

TASTE TV I DINNER TIME LIVE WITH DAVID CHANG

Holiday helpers

Chang shines in holiday-themed season of 'Dinner Time Live'

By Caroline Collacutt

TV Media

s the founder of the highly popular Momofuku restaurant group and the star of Netflix's hit series "Ugly Delicious," chef David Chang has impressed foodies around the globe. With his approachable demeanor and elevated dishes, Chang left fans wanting to sit and dig in alongside the chef — and now they can do just that as Season 2 of "Dinner Time Live With David Chang" is now streaming on Netflix, with new episodes releasing weekly on Tuesdays.

"World-renowned chef David Chang has plenty of experience cooking on camera — and that's why he knows that 99% of what you see at home is a lie," says Netflix. "Now he's ready to show the world how a glorious, professionally prepared meal actually gets pulled off, without the assistance of swap-outs, food stylists, cleanup crews and well-timed camera cuts to make it all look seamless."

According to the streaming service, this one-ofa-kind series "[offers] audiences the chance to observe a VIP cooking experience as it unfolds in real-time — and all the mishaps, problem-solving and cocktail-fueled conversations that go along with it."
