Connections, Conversation & Coffee

with Sue Abrams, The Social Coach

We warmly invite all grandparents of children with special needs to a unique networking event:

Tuesday, Nov. 19 | 10-11:30 a.m.

At the Nina Iser Jewish Cultural Center

Register for this free program at www.jewishnaples.org

This is a wonderful opportunity to:

- Connect with other grandparents who understand your journey.
- Share stories and advice
- Learn about local programs and support available
- Build a supportive community

Why Attend?

- Support: Gain emotional and practical support.
- Community: Be part of a caring and understanding group.
- Resources: Access valuable information and resources.

Jewish Federation OF GREATER NAPLES

Susan Abrams
M.A. CCC-SLP

The Social Coach
EDUCATE + COLLABORATE + EMPOWER

About Sue

Susan Abrams, M.A. CCC-SLP, is a highly respected speech-language pathologist and the visionary founder of The Social Coach, LLC. With a career dedicated to supporting children with special needs Susan has made significant contributions to the field through her innovative programs and initiatives.

She developed Parent University and Be Social Kids, which empower parents and children with practical strategies for success.

Susan's commitment to professional development and collaboration is evident in her creation of the Innovators in Education conference, a platform for sharing best practices and cutting-edge research.

Driven by her passion to help children and their families she embarked on her newest venture, The Social Coach, LLC. Through this endeavor, she continues to provide specialized support and guidance to parents and grandparents, both nationally and internationally.