Brian Craig also contributed to Sami's offense with three RBIs, two of which came on a two-run home run in the first inning.
Brewery had plenty of hitting stars to help it build the lead. Mark Waks had three hits including a two-run homer and a triple while driving in three; manager Jim Vitas had three hits, including a triple while totaling three RBIs; catcher Gary Menzies drove in three runs while his batterymate, pitcher Jim Cuevas, had three knocks and two RBIs. Shortstop Jon Wiseman drilled a home run to open the scoring for the Brew Crew.

Brewery 15 Stonewalls 14

Brewery's Gary Menzies (four hits and three RBIs) capped an epic Brewery comeback with a line drive single scoring the winning run as the Brew Crew stunned Stonewalls by scoring seven runs in the bottom of the seventh inning to claim its eighth win of the season.
Trailing 14-8, Randy Morrison (two RBIs) sparked the Brew Crew rally with an RBI single. Paul Shelton (two RBIs) reached on an error that allowed two more runs to score, cutting Brewery's deficit to 14-11. Brewery tied the game on another error and a fielder's choice, setting the stage for Menzies to complete his perfect day at the plate with the winning hit. Brewery's other hitting stars included Mike Sweeney, who was a perfect three for three at the plate and Murph Knapke, who also had three hits. Kevin Smith contributed two RBIs to the Brewery offense.
For tough luck Stonewalls, shortstop Jim Baumann led the offense with three hits and six RBIs. Support came from Dick Eddy and manager George Lancaster (three hits apiece) as well as John Sherwin, who plated two runs with a triple and pitcher Ed Kopecky who also had two RBIs. Dave Korte drilled a triple and scored three runs for Stonewalls.

Sand Bar 18 Joey's Pizza 9

Sand Bar used a balanced offense and three big scoring innings to pull away from Joey's Pizza to earn its eleventh win of the season.
Amassing 25 hits, Sand Bar's attack was led by Jon Krebs (four hits and two RBIs) and John Binns, who also had four hits. Key contributors included: Gary Young (three hits and three RBIs, two of which rode home on his seventh inning triple, part of a seven-run outburst for the Sand Men that cemented the win); Jerry Engel (three hits and three RBIs) and pitcher Charlie Lamb, whose three run double in the fifth inning gave Sand Bar a lead it never relinquished. Additional support came from Bobby Williams (three hits) and John Gross, two RBIs, delivered on a triple, part of a five run first inning for Sand Bar.
Despite the early deficit, Joey's battled back. It was led by manager Todd Whitney (three hits) whose triple scored Paul Sullivan (who had a three-hit day) and Chuck Stathopoulos
