Monday, February 26th, 2024

Crazy Flamingo 7 Oyster Society6

Back-to-back home runs by Dave Chroust and Nick Kopley gave the Oyster Society a 6-2 lead in the fourth inning but it wasn't enough as Crazy Flamingo scored five times in the last two innings to earn the come-from-behind win. The big blows for Crazy's were a two-out, two-run single by Alan Schneider that narrowed the lead to one and run scoring hits by Al Bozzo and Joe Barry that gave Crazy's the lead for good.
Barry and Schneider both drove in two runs for the Crazy Birds. Chroust finished with two RBIs for the Oyster Society.

Doreen's 9 American Legion 8

A pair of two-run home runs by Fred Kramer and Rich Klein highlighted a five-run fifth inning that extended Doreen's lead to 9-2, and they were able to thwart a late rally by the American Legion to win the tight contest. Andy Pressler's three-run home run for the Legion cut Doreen's lead to 9-6 but it was not enough as Doreen's prevailed.
Frank Caso also knocked in two runs for Doreen's. Al Bozzo led the Legion with three base hits.

Wednesday, February 28th, 2024

Crazy Flamingo 21 Doreen's 16

Crazy Flamingo's scored their runs in bunches with 14 crossing the plate in the third, fourth, and fifth innings to stretch their lead to 15-6 but the never-say-die Doreen's team scored an amazing nine runs in the bottom of the seventh inning to tie the game at 16 and force extra innings. Undaunted, Crazy's scored five times in the top of the eighth inning and held on for the hard-fought victory.
Hot hitting Nick Brooks had another big day for Crazy's with four hits and five RBIs. He was supported by Jim Battye with four hits and three RBIs, Alan Schneider with four hits, Brian Bergman and Mike Arnold with three hits and two RBIs each, Mick Keller with three hits, and Jim O'Meara with two RBIs. Barry Neale also added a triple to the cause.
John Robichaud had a clutch three-run hit that tied the score at 16 and finished the game with four RBIs for Doreen's. Bruce Borden contributed four hits and three RBIs, Steve Risch, Rick Condle, and Tom Patterson added three hits, and Frank Caso hammered a triple and knocked in two runs in the contest.
The win by Crazy Flamingo, combined with the loss later in the day by the Oyster Society, gave Crazy's the Gulf Coast Division regular season title.

American Legion 20 Oyster Society10